1. Parkside Bar & Outpost Burger
330 G St 6-9 PM

Max & Julian of The Big Poppies evolve from the rock n roll vibes of the big band to an intimate acoustic duo.

2. The Artery
207 G St 6-9 PM

A Wing and a Prayer. View ceramic sculptures by Janine Echabarne, whose exhibit title expresses her feeling that we are flying on one wing in a dangerous time. The bas-relief pieces are like prayers or wishes for all people, everywhere, to enjoy basic human rights.

3. The Paint Chip
217 F St 6-8:30 PM

Bookish. June Daskalakis' mixed media series incorporates fragments of text, inviting viewers to consider the matter of books through allegorical narratives exploring how we engage with written words.

4. Davis Craft & Vintage Fair
E St Plaza 5-9 PM

Shop from arts, crafts, and vintage micro-businesses' booths, plus free live music. Weather permitting.

5. Mabel's Market
222 D St, Suite #1 5-9 PM

Davis Saunterings. View photography by Brett Chulada, featuring a few of his favorites from a year's worth of wanderings in our beloved town. See striking images of some Davis staples and some hidden gems. Enjoy refreshments and speak with the artist.

6. Pence Gallery
212 D St 6-9 PM

Davis Art Studio Tour Exhibit offers a preview of a wide range of work by 45 artists participating in the tour. Flights of Fancy: Frankie Hansbearry & Marsha Elam features ceramics that explore whimsical and imaginative themes. Ronald Peetz: Work in Progress exhibits sculpture and mixed media pieces that lean heavily towards social critique and parody. Watercolor by Joanne Andresen's Watercolor Class is displayed on the stairway. Enjoy Terra Sávia & Ettore wines.
