1. The Artery

207 G St 6-9 PM

New Paintings by Adele Louise Shaw. Adele's paintings are inspired by the botanical world. She uses many materials—watercolors, inks, encaustic paint, pens, pencils—to fuse layers of color and techniques. Her art vibrates with undulating forms and earthly elements of fire, air, and water. Flowers—poppies, sunflowers, iris—complement the abstract forms.

2. MAK Design+Build

430 F St 5:30-8:30 PM

Paintings by Luis Guarnizo. Luis Guarnizo is a Colombian-born painter and Professor Emeritus of Sociology at UC Davis. His work explores the restless and epic nature of human experience. It engages mobility, climate change, and the individual perception of natural and social experiences as physical and existential phenomena.

3. Mabel's Market

222 D St, Ste. #1 6-9 PM

DSHS Artists on the Rise. Six artists from the Davis Senior High School art department display a selection of their work in various media and styles, providing the viewer with a fresh look at the next generation of creatives. Refreshments included and artists present.

4. Pence Gallery

212 D St 6-9 PM

Assorted Flavors is the first annual exhibit dedicated to the artwork of Pence Gallery Members, sharing the creative talent of the artists who support our organization. The Tiny Show features 5 x 7" works of art by over 40 local and regional artists. Biophilia: Our Longing for Nature is a group show that reflects the artists' love for living things and the natural world. Enjoy complimentary wine and live music by Sammy & Lauren Leverone.

2nd Friday ArtAbout

May 9th, 2025

5. Logos Books

513 2nd St 6-8 PM

Lifting The Veil. Larry Williams is a retired art teacher whose work utilizes rich colors and enigmatic shapes. His oil paintings incorporate forms that suggest or tease real life while slipping away into abstraction.
