

2nd Friday ArtAbout

January 9th, 2026

New Year,
New Art Adventure!

1 TriMusica at Davis Community Church

PLUS AN OFF-MAP EVENT
-SEE REVERSE

1. Davis Community Church 412 C St 12-1 PM

LIVE@DCC: Second Friday Free Noon Concert. TriMusica, with clarinetist Sandra McPherson, cellist Susan Lamb Cook, and pianist John Cozza, presents two centuries of clarinet trios—an engaging program of works by Ludwig van Beethoven, French composer Louise Farrenc, and Bay Area composer Durwin Hsieh.

2. Pence Gallery 212 D St 6-9 PM

Here for a While showcases oil paintings by Charlene Will, recipient of the 2025 Pence Gallery Emerging Artist Award. Worn is a group exhibit exploring the theme of how clothing that we wear often reflects our personal identity and/or culture.

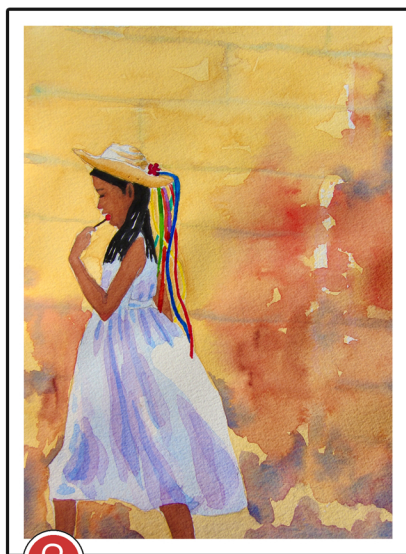

Amateur is a series of fiber artworks by Maris Kaplan along the stairway. The Realm of Possibility features mixed-media paintings by Diane Williams & sculptures by Maryann Steinert-Foley. Enjoy complimentary wine & an art-themed scavenger hunt.

Jori Jori, Charlene Will (right), Diane Williams (upper right) at the Pence Gallery

2

3 Lorie Topinka at Logos Books

4 Ann Privateer at The Paint Chip

3. Logos Books 513 2nd St 5-7:30 PM

Here's to the Memories from San Miguel de Allende. View vibrant watercolor paintings by Lorie Topinka highlighting the people and festivals of San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, Mexico. The artist is drawn to bold colors and iconic images. Whenever she is painting, she gets lost for a time in the looking and seeing, making works that illustrate the joyful creative process.

4. The Paint Chip 217 F Street 6-8:30 PM

Beginnings. An exhibition by local artist Ann Privateer, presenting a new body of work that blends landscape with imaginative narrative. Rendered in her signature naive style, these recent paintings are both charming and richly expressive.

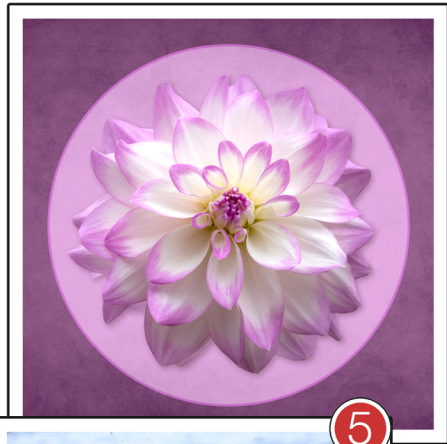

Signature Sponsor:

WILLOW GROVE

2nd Friday ArtAbout

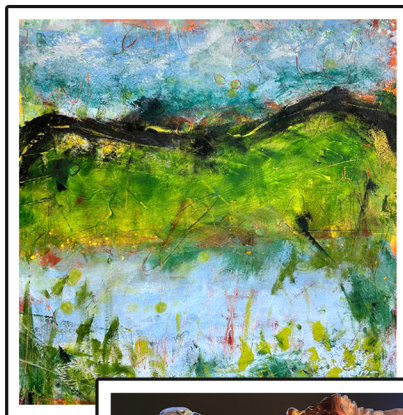

January 9th, 2026

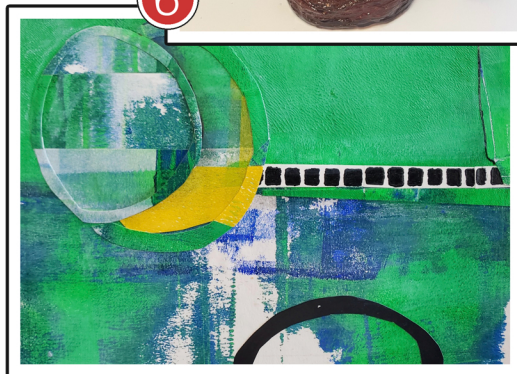

5

Suzanne Hambleton (top) & Darlene Riel (bottom)
at The Artery

6

Thelma Weatherford (top), Judy Catambay,
Amy Teutemacher (bottom) at Arboretum Art Works

7

Synthesaurio at Third Space

8

Tom Corbett at Circle A Studio

5. The Artery

207 G St 6-9 PM

Perfectly Square. This unusual show, featuring 40 Artery members and 9 guests, reveals the creativity of artists who have strict limitations. The pieces in Perfectly Square have no medium restriction, but the common thread is the square and dimensions of either 8" x 8" or 12" x 12". Come see the creative work produced under such limitations!

6. Arboretum Art Works

17 Arboretum Dr Suites G & H

5:30-7:30 PM

Guest artist Amy Teutemacher returns. Sit for a portrait with Daniela Lares. Visit with the artists.

7. Third Space Art Collective

17 Arboretum Dr, Unit C

5-8 PM

El Común. Third Space Davis presents a collective art show where artists were invited to submit work that resonates with the principles of the Zapatista movement, which include autonomy, sovereignty, dignity of others, belonging and common struggle. During the reception, we will have live music, snacks, and more.

OFF-MAP EVENT

8. Circle A Studio

1930 5th St 5:30-8 PM

The Book as Art. Building on the very popular Content Artist Book Exhibit, Circle A Studio is proud to host a group exhibition of mind-bending, soul-enriching explorations on the concept of "What is a book?" Participating local book artists include Nikki Thompson, Marie-Thérèse Brown, Tom Corbett, Marlene Lee, Adele Louise Shaw, and others.

Scan for more info:

We're looking for artists and venues to participate! Deadline to sign up for the February ArtAbout is Friday, January 23rd.

