5. The Artist Tree Dispensary Davis 420 F St 6-7 PM

Pop Icons. Matthew Carden has spent 30 years telling imaginative stories with his illustrative photography. Matthew's internationally collected art is exhibited and sold at numerous galleries. All of his work revolves around food, and invites the viewer into another perspective. Telling stories rooted in our universal connection to food, Matthew's ability to meld traditional experience with a childlike vision leads to work that's just like him: uniquely whimsical and eternally young at heart.

8. The Artery 207 G St 6-9 PM

Colorful Creations by Loom & Lens. This show presents Robin Lynde's and Garry Everett's two distinct art-forms. Robin's vibrant, hand-woven textiles, ranging from wraps to refined home goods, use sophisticated color, pattern, and structure. Garry's stunning wildlife and landscape photography demonstrate an expressive color palette and clarity of composition. His images capture the natural world while emphasizing the emotions that color can evoke. The artists show how color shapes perception and illuminates form, bridging the worlds of fiber and light.
